

COOKIES POLICY

By accessing and/or using the Website, the user accepts that FONT ADVOCATS may use own and technical and persistent cookies as well as cookies of third parties ("Google Maps": <https://www.google.es/intl/es/policies/technologies/cookies>) to allow his/her browsing through the Website and manage geo-location data.

Cookies are automatic procedures of collection of information regarding the specific preferences of the user within user's visit to a specific website.

User can configure your browser to accept or refuse all the cookies or to receive a notice in his/her computer informing of the reception of each cookie and to decide in that moment its introduction.

The procedures for blocking and deleting cookies may change from one Internet browser to another, so that we ask to check carefully the instructions provided by your Internet browser, such as the following:

- Configuration of Internet Explorer cookies
- Configuration of Firefox cookies
- Configuration of Google Chrome cookies
- Configuration of Safari cookies

These browsers are subject to upgrades or modifications so we cannot guarantee that they are totally adapted to your browser version.

If the user decides against the use of cookies, he/she may have limited access to some of the services of the Website. If he/she continues browsing through the Website without refusing them, it implies that the user accepts their use.

For any additional question regarding the use of cookies, it is possible to send a written request by e-mail to info@fontadvocats.com.
